

Fry-nally: Curling Up with Curly Fries at Mooch!

Proposer	Joseph Banks
Seconders

Notes:

- Curly fries, once a beloved staple of the Mooch menu, have unfortunately been removed from the offerings, leading to a noticeable absence of a cherished item.
- The decision to eliminate curly fries from the menu has generated significant feedback from students, with many expressing disappointment and dissatisfaction over the absence of this popular choice.
- It is evident from student feedback that curly fries hold a special place in the hearts and taste buds of many within the University community, making their absence keenly felt.
- The removal of curly fries represents a missed opportunity to provide students with a diverse and satisfying selection of food options at Mooch, a key social hub within the University campus.
- Reintroducing curly fries to the Mooch menu would not only address the desires of a significant portion of the student body but also align with the Student Union's commitment to enhancing student experience and satisfaction.

Believes:

- The Student Union is entrusted with representing and advocating for the interests and preferences of the diverse student body at the University of Nottingham.
- Food offerings at campus establishments play a crucial role in shaping the overall experience of students, contributing to their satisfaction and sense of belonging within the university community.
- The decision to remove curly fries from the Mooch menu may have been made for logistical or operational reasons, but it is essential to recognize and prioritize the desires and preferences of students when considering such changes.
- Curly fries hold nostalgic and cultural significance for many students, serving as a comforting and familiar choice that adds variety to the dining options available on campus.

- Reintroducing curly fries to the Mooch menu would not only meet the demands of students but also demonstrate a responsiveness to their feedback and a commitment to fostering a welcoming and inclusive campus environment.

Resolves:

- The Union hereby resolves to advocate strongly for the reintroduction of curly fries to the Mooch menu, recognizing the importance of this item to the student community.
- The Union will engage in constructive dialogue with Mooch management to explore the feasibility and logistics of reintroducing curly fries in a timely manner.
- The Union will actively solicit feedback from students regarding their preferences and suggestions for menu offerings at Mooch and Students' Union retail outlets.
- The Union commits to working collaboratively with Mooch management to ensure that future decisions regarding menu offerings reflect the diverse tastes and preferences of the student body.
- The Union will communicate transparently with students regarding the progress and outcome of efforts to reintroduce curly fries to the Mooch menu, demonstrating a commitment to accountability and responsiveness to student concerns.
